Champlain Apartments | Storm Preparation

Dear Champlain Apartments Renters:

We know the University and Champlain have both been in touch with you about class schedules, cancellations and storm preparation.

We do want to reiterate a few points as we prepare for high winds this afternoon and through the night which could result in power outages:

- * have a supply of water and non-perishable food on-hand.
- * move all porch, balcony furnishings, and bikes indoors.
- * charge all cell phones, computers, and iPads and keep them fully charged.
- * have flashlights and batteries available.
- * stay inside as much as possible, once the winds begin.

Please call us if you have any questions or need assistance.

My Best,
Gene Richards
